Article 6 - The procedures for granting the status of a compatriot residing abroad

1. For the purposes of obtaining the status of a compatriot residing abroad, an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad shall submit an application to the Agency personally or through a representative. A person staying abroad shall submit an application to a diplomatic or consulate office of Georgia abroad, which shall forward the application to the Agency in the shortest time possible.
2. The application may be submitted in an electronic form by completing the application form available on the Agency's website.
3. The application form shall be completed in the Georgian and/or English language(s).
4. If the Agency determines that the documents submitted by an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad are incomplete, he/she shall be given a reasonable period to correct such deficiency. In case of a failure to submit the documents within the period determined by the Agency, the Agency shall be authorised to refuse reviewing the application.
5. The Agency shall examine the submitted documents and check the compliance of the person with the requirements determined by Article 4 (1) of this Law. For this purpose, within 10 working days after receiving the application, the Agency shall send the case materials to the relevant state authority in order to receive an opinion regarding the Georgian origin of the applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad and/or the attribution of his/her native language to the group of the Georgian-Caucasian languages, and, within its scope of authority and for the purposes of the protection of state interests and/or public safety, the Agency shall send the same materials to the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and the State Security Service of Georgia in order to receive an appropriate opinion with regard to the eligibility of such person to receive the status of a compatriot residing abroad.
6. For the purposes of preparing an opinion with regard to the Georgian origin of an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad and/or the attribution of his/her native language to the group of the Georgian-Caucasian languages, a commission composed of appropriate experts, including linguists, shall be formed within the system of the relevant state authority. The powers and rules of operation of the commission shall be defined by an order of the head of the relevant state authority.
7. The relevant state authority, the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and the State Security Service of Georgia shall provide the Agency with their opinions within two months after receiving the case materials.
8. If the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia and the State Security Service of Georgia fail to submit an opinion to the Agency within two months after receiving the case materials as provided in paragraph 5 of this article, it shall be construed that there are no grounds to refuse to grant the status of a compatriot residing abroad to the person for the purposes of the protection of state interests and/or public safety.

<sup>8</sup><sup>1</sup>The failure of the relevant state authority to submit to the Agency an opinion within 60 days after receiving the case materials as provided in paragraph 5 of this article, shall serve as grounds to refuse to grant the status of a compatriot residing abroad to the person, and the Agency shall refuse to grant the status of a compatriot residing abroad to the person within 80 days after receiving the application.

9. If an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad meets the requirements provided for by Article 4(1) and Article 5(1) of this Law and if there are no grounds for refusing to grant the status of a compatriot residing abroad to the person as provided for by Article 9 (1) of this Law , the Agency shall grant the status of a compatriot residing abroad to such person and, if required, shall issue a certificate of a compatriot residing abroad which confirms the status of a compatriot residing abroad.

10. Close relatives of an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad shall also be eligible to obtain the status of a compatriot residing abroad. The obligation of confirming the Georgian origin and/or the attribution of their native language to the group of the Georgian-Caucasian languages shall not apply to close relatives of the applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad.

11. The Agency shall review an application for obtaining the status of a compatriot residing abroad and shall make a decision within 80 days after receiving the application.

12. Fees for the services rendered by the Agency for granting the status of a compatriot residing abroad and for issuing a certificate of a compatriot residing abroad shall be defined by the legislation of Georgia.

13. The Agency shall communicate with an applicant for the status of a compatriot residing abroad through the publication of an appropriate notification on the website of the Agency. When submitting the application to the Agency the person shall be entitled to indicate an electronic mail as an additional means of communication with the Agency. If the electronic mail is indicated the communication with the person shall be carried out through the website of the Agency and the electronic mail.
